CORRESPONDENCE: Clerk John Leutz then read the correspondence. A motion by Richard Dryjanski and seconded by John Leutz not to renew the Cemetery contract with Crystal Falls. All present voted aye and the motion carried.

RESOLUTIONS AND ORDINANCES: John Leutz then read the two resolutions from last month and Rose Poynter then read the new Planning Committee Ordinance. George Minerick made the motion to accept which was seconded by John Leutz. On a Roll Call vote, all members voted aye.

ELECTION TRAINING: John Leutz reported that Mastodon Township had an election in November and felt that some training would help. George Minerick then suggested that two with the Clerk. Dick Dryjanski then motioned to have the three for training and seconded by Rose Poynter and all members voted aye.

The Clerk then asked the Supervisor if he had any luck in finding a deputy which he said he had not. The Clerk John Leutz then reported he is still hunting for an accountant for the Township. The question of when to put minutes from Board Meetings and Planning Committee meetings on the web site. We have had some problems with errors on the minutes being taken as fact. George Minerick then reported that the Red Book says it has to be posted within seven days. This will be followed. As far as Agendas, because it changes right up to the last day it will not be posted.

TREASURERS REPORT; Rose Poynter then gave her report and the fact that we have a new printer for the hall.

SUPERVISOR REPORT: Richard Dryjanski reported that the area was hit by a scam in which one member was scammed out of $300.00. He does not have a computer or cell phone. He also reported on the crack sealing on Way Dam Road. He also reported on the M-69 bridge.

ZONING REPORT: Pam Minerick reported on the rezoning meeting on September 16, 2021. She was asked by John Leutz about the Keyhole Ordinance. She reported that it was in effect for the entire Township. She was also asked about the Greenbelt that was in the June 1, 1983 but not in any following Zone Ordinance books. She reported that the documentation is not available but since it was not in the following books the newer books take precedence. This was followed by a discussion from the board and Pam Minerick said she was going to do some checking with the MTA on what to do.

WEB SITE: Russ Bauwens reported on the progress of the web.

DAWSON LAKE: Dawson Lake progress was discussed and the fact that we are showing a slight profit.
